BOND AMOUNTS FOR UNLISTED OFFENSES

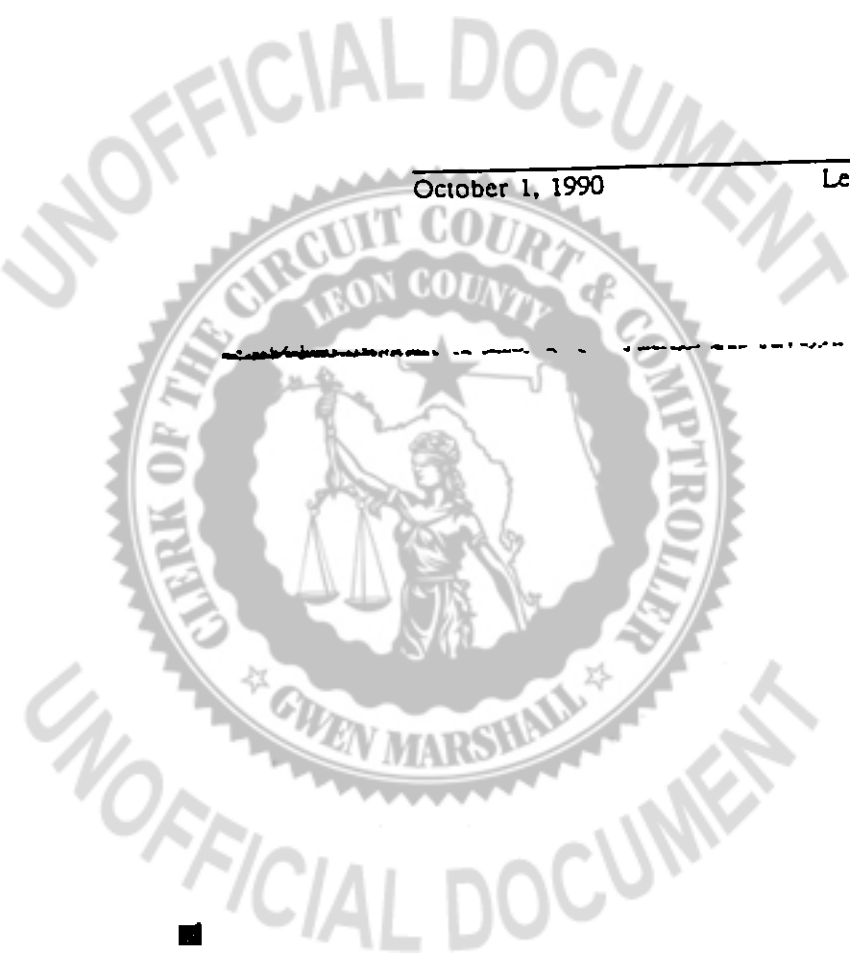

The bail amount for any offense not listed above shall be determined by the severity of the offense in accordance with the following procedures

(1) No bail shall be set for a capital felony, life felony, or first degree felony punishable by life. In such cases, the defendant shall be admitted to bail only by the circuit judge having felony trial jurisdiction and then only after a bail hearing

(2) No bail shall be set for any crime of violence to the person, not listed in the bail schedule, regardless of the degree of the offense. In such cases, the defendant shall be held for first appearance so that the judge can impose appropriate conditions such as no contact provisions, and geographical limitations

(3) Bail for any other offense not specifically listed above and not within either of the previous two general categories shall be as follows

Capital felony	FAR
Life felony	FAR
First degree felony (life)	FAR
First degree felony	FAR
Second degree felony	5 000 00
Third degree felony	2,500 00
First degree misdemeanor	500 00
Second degree misdemeanor	100 00
Local ordinance (60 day penalty)	500 00
Local ordinance (below 60 days)	100 00 ROIR

EXCEPTIONS TO THE BOND SCHEDULE

A defendant who is otherwise entitled to a bond under the bond schedule shall, nevertheless be held for first appearance under any of the following circumstances

(1) No bail shall be set for any defendant who appears to be a danger to himself or to others. In such cases, the defendant shall be held for first appearance so that the trial or first appearance judge can determine the need for mental screening and evaluation.

(2) In the event that monetary bail or other pretrial release conditions set by an arrest warrant are in conflict with the presumptive amount of bail under the bond schedule, the bail or pretrial release conditions set by the arrest warrant shall prevail.

(3) A first appearance is required if the arresting officer has made a written request that the defendant be held for first appearance stating a bona fide law enforcement reason supporting the need for a first appearance. As an example, a defendant may be held for first appearance if law enforcement officers are in the process of obtaining arrest warrants in other cases. A defendant may not be held merely because he was uncooperative or offended the officer in some way.

(4) A first appearance is required if the pretrial release officer has made a written request that the defendant be held for first appearance stating a bona reason for denying bail under the bail schedule. The reasons must be limited to the defendant's likelihood of appearance or the safety of the community.

(5) No defendant shall be admitted to bail under the bond schedule if that defendant has not provided accurate information as to his or her identity.

STANDARD ABBREVIATIONS AND NOTATIONS FOR ARREST WARRANTS

The following standard abbreviations and notations are commonly used in setting conditions of release on arrest warrants

- FAR A first appearance is required
- ROR Release the defendant on his own recognizance
- PTR Release the defendant through the pretrial release program if qualified
- No Bond Do not release the defendant on bond or any other conditions of release
- S(amount) Release the defendant on a bond in the specified amount

LEON COUNTY PRETRIAL RELEASE PROCEDURES

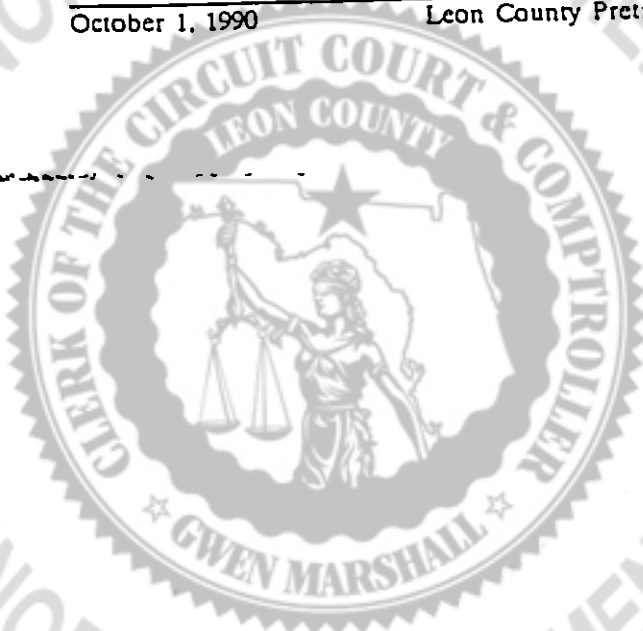

Effective October 1, 1990

The Leon County Pretrial Release Program was established to provide an alternative to monetary bail for those defendants who are likely to appear in court and unlikely to present a danger to the community. Release under the supervision of the Pretrial Release Program shall be subject to the following procedures:

I.INTAKE

An officer of the Leon County Pretrial Release Program shall be on duty at the Leon County Jail every day, twenty-four hours a day. The Pretrial Release Officer shall be responsible for collecting initial information on each defendant for use in determining eligibility for admission to bail prior to the first appearance hearing and eligibility for pretrial release. The information obtained by the officer may also be used in subsequent judicial proceedings if the defendant is not immediately released from custody.

Any defendant who has been arrested on a state charge for an offense within Leon County and taken into custody at the Leon County Jail shall be brought before the Pretrial Release Officer. Before the defendant is booked into the jail or released on bail or pretrial release as the case may be, the Pretrial Release Officer shall obtain or attempt to obtain the following information: (1) the defendant's identity, (2) the defendant's prior record including national, state, and local charges, (3) the existence of any pending prosecutions or warrants, and (4) the extent of the defendant's ties, if any, to the community. This information shall be recorded on a pretrial release intake interview form (see page 18) and attached to other pertinent arrest documents including the probable cause affidavit and the victim statement, if applicable. If the defendant is not released on bail or pretrial release, all of the pertinent information shall be provided to the judge assigned to handle the first appearance hearing the next morning.

II.

CLASSIFICATION

After all of the initial information has been obtained and assembled, the pretrial release officer shall place the defendant within one of the following three categories: (1) not eligible for bail or pretrial release before the first appearance hearing, (2) eligible for immediate release on a scheduled amount of bail, and (3) eligible for release under the supervision of the Leon County Pretrial Release Program.

III.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PRETRIAL RELEASE

The pretrial release officer shall evaluate each defendant using the VERA point scale (see page 20) to determine eligibility for pretrial release. A defendant who has made a written request for pretrial release (see page 21) and who has a verified local address and a verified point score of 4 or greater on the VERA point scale shall be eligible for release unless any one of the following conditions exist:

- (1) The defendant has a present felony charge and has been sentenced to the Department of Corrections within the preceding 18 months
- (2) The defendant has a prior criminal charge which was pending at the time of the offense that is the subject of the present detention
- (3) The defendant has a history of an escape or an unexcused failure to appear.

(4) The arresting officer has made a written request that the defendant be held for first appearance stating a bona fide law enforcement reason supporting the need for a first appearance

(5) The defendant is suffering from a mental or emotional illness and it appears that release would endanger the safety of the defendant or others

(6) The defendant has been taken into custody on a warrant that indicates that the defendant should be held without bail or that the defendant should be held for first appearance.

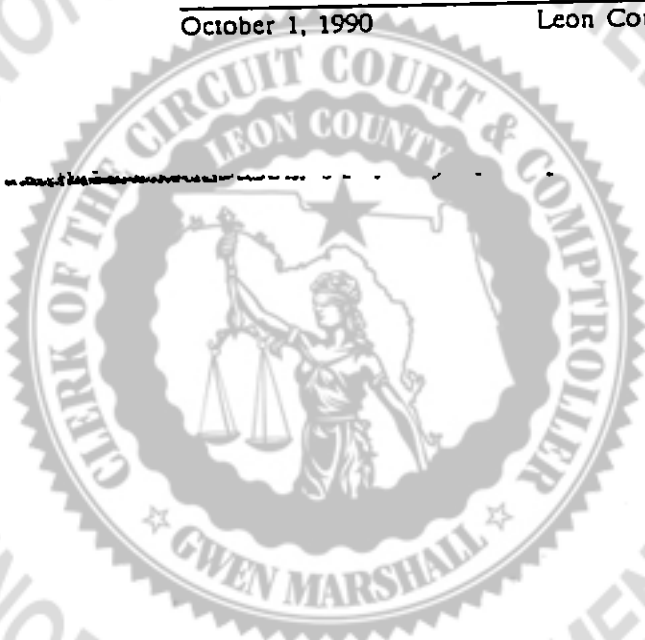

IV.

CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE
