WHEREAS, the Courts of the Second Judicial Circuit do not have the personnel and other resources to continuously reprocess such returned mail, ascertain current mailing addresses, and remail its orders and judgments in conformity with the law, legal and procedural deadlines and the proper and efficient administration of justice, and

WHEREAS, the Department of Corrections is a party to the subject petitions, complaints and other suits and subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the Second Judicial Circuit, and

WHEREAS, under Rule 1.080(h)(1) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure copies of all orders or judgments shall be transmitted by the court or under its direction to all parties at the time of entry of the order or judgment, and

WHEREAS, the prompt, proper and efficient administration of justice requires that the inordinate, intolerable and unnecessary burden generated by the mailing policy of the Department of Corrections must immediately be alleviated and corrected,
