Then, upon a showing of necessity, counsel may be authorized to exceed the statutory limits imposed under Section 39.1034, Florida Statutes, by order of the court.

3. In Camera Proceedings/Compensation

In the event that conflict counsel believes that the attorney must disclose privileged information at such hearing, the hearing will be held in camera and the County Attorney will keep all information learned from the hearing confidential. Compensation in cases deemed “extraordinary and unusual” shall be as provided by Attachment “A.”

D. An attorney who represents a defendant charged with the more than one offense in the same case may be compensated in accordance with the statutory maximum provided for the most serious offense for which representation of the defendant occurs.

All requests for payment of attorney's fees, costs, investigator, or experts, and motions seeking advance authorization in such matters or the appointment of co-counsel, shall first be submitted to the County Attorney of the County where the case is pending, together with a proposed order. The County Attorney shall treat all such matters as confidential as required by law and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except as authorized by the Court or after the case has concluded. In the event that conflict counsel believes that the attorney must disclose privileged information at any such fee/cost hearing, the hearing will be held in camera, where appropriate, and only the conflict attorney, the defendant, the County Attorney, and any necessary witnesses shall be permitted to attend.

D. Cases in which the Defendant is indigent for purposes of costs. In cases in which a lawyer has been privately retained but where that lawyer has reason to believe that the defendant is indigent for purposes of costs, a motion to declare the defendant indigent for purposes of costs shall be filed and served upon the County Attorney, together with a proposed order granting the motion.

Prior to setting the matter for hearing, defense counsel shall follow the procedures set forth in paragraph (C) above. If the defendant is declared indigent for purposes of costs, the procedure for obtaining investigative, expert, or other costs shall be the same as for appointed conflict counsel, as set out in Section I (B) (2) and (3) herein for capital cases and in Section IV (C) herein for all other cases.

The court administrator shall forward all complaints to the conflict attorney with a request to respond within 10 days of receipt.
