

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF
THE STATE OF FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2004-03

IN RE: GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINING ENTITLEMENT TO INSOLVENCY
IN CIVIL CASES PURSUANT TO FLORIDA STATUTES 57.081

WHEREAS, persons receiving the services of the Clerks and Sheriffs without charge or costs in civil cases under the provisions of Section 57.081, Florida Statutes, may not be eligible and qualify for such benefits, despite an Affidavit of Indigency executed by them in support of their application for waiver of such costs and fees, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. The procedures set forth herein shall be followed by the Clerks of the Second Judicial Circuit upon the application by any person in civil cases for a waiver of costs and fees under the provisions of Sections 57.081, Florida Statutes.
2. The applicant shall complete a sworn Financial Affidavit (form attached) that includes evidence of the applicant's income.
3. The Clerks shall not accept any Affidavit of Indigency, or issue a Certificate of Insolvency, if such Financial Affidavits reflect that any of the following apply:
 - a. The applicant has cash, or checking or savings deposits, in excess of $500.00; or
 - b. The applicant has no dependents and his/her gross income exceeds 125% of the HHS Poverty Guidelines (chart attached), or
 - c. The applicant has dependents and his/her gross income exceeds 125% of the HHS Poverty Guidelines for household size (chart attached)If the applicant qualifies as indigent, the applicant must sign an Affidavit of Indigency and the Clerks shall issues a Certificate of Insolvency.
4. If the applicant does not qualify as indigent, the Clerks shall advise the applicant and shall not issue a Certificate of Insolvency. If the applicant seeks judicial review of this action, the Clerks shall send the case to the judge whom the case would have been assigned. If the judge finds the applicant is not indigent, the applicant must then pay the filing fees within five days to proceed with the case, or the Clerk shall dismiss the case.
5. If the applicant is represented by an attorney, the attorney may files a signed
