Any weekend or holiday dispositions in which the reporter is called in, the rates are negotiable if by private counsel. If to be paid from public funds the first hourly rate shall be $40.00 and $20.00 thereafter or portion thereof.

3. Grand Jury and Coroner's Inquest

The rate shall be the same as allowed for reporting Criminal depositions when authorized by proper authority.

4. Reporting Final Arguments

Pursuant to Rule 2.070 (b), Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, all trial proceedings are to be reported and no part of the proceedings shall be omitted unless all of the parties agree to do so and the Court approves the agreement. Therefore, all proceedings, including final arguments, in criminal and juvenile matters shall be reported unless all parties agree to omit same and the judge approves. Pursuant to Chapter 29, Florida Statutes, and particularly Section 29.03, an official court reporter is entitled to receive additional compensation for reporting such final arguments. This statute is construed to mean a reporter may charge $10.00 per side for each such argument reported for a total of no more than $20.00. However, if there are multiple defendants separately represented by different counsel, the reporter may charge $10.00 for each argument made.

B. TRANSCRIPTS

Each page of transcription shall contain all of the requirements as outlined in the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, Rule 2.070 (f), or any amendment thereof by the Supreme Court of Florida.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that no transcriptions or copies of transcription shall be taxed at public expense in jury and non-jury proceedings or appeals without procuring prior approval of a trial judge and that no expedited, daily, or overnight transcriptions shall be allowed at public expense without prior approval of the judge or a certification of need for such transcripts is requested by the party.

Travel Per Diem and Fees

Travel and per diem shall be in accordance with Chapter 112.061, Florida Statutes. That is, travel begins when you leave and ends when you return. Fees, as prescribed, in A-2, of this order, may not be charged during actual travel to and from the destination. These fees may be charged when you arrive and begin the proceeding for which you are there for and ends when the proceeding is over. All official Court Reporter mileage and per diem should be claimed on State travel vouchers and paid by the state.

The Court takes notice that if a reporter is required to travel outside of his or her assigned home base for depositions, that is, where the reporters office is located, that in fairness to the reporter, a fee should be established to compensate the reporter for this unproductive travel time. The following fees may be charged as a one time fee, per day, when taking depositions outside of the assigned reporters office. The fee should be charged on the first deposition taken during that day and is a one time charge. The fees are established for one way travel only to the destination.

0 miles to 15 miles	- no fee	- one way only
16 miles to 30 miles	- $7.50	- one way only
31 miles or more	- $15.00	- one way only

Travel fees are authorized when paid from Public Funds and is applicable to travel on or after the date of this order.

Deputy Court Reporters mileage and per diem, when filling in for an official reporter in any normal-ly assigned proceeding shall file their own travel voucher and submit to the Court Administrator for approval. Deputy Court Reporters, when taking criminal deposition to be billed to a county outside of the normal assigned county/counties, shall submit their own state travel voucher for payment and must be forwarded to the Court Administrator for approval.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that all bills submitted for payment, at public expense, in the foregoing matters shall be approved for payment in compliance with good auditing procedures before the clerk is authorized to remit any funds.

Transcript rates and attendance fees hereby established shall apply to all matters invoiced for payment on or after the effective date of this order.

This Order shall become effective immediately and supersedes Administrative Order No: 88-87 and all other Administrative Orders in conflict.

DONE AND ORDERED In Chambers in Tallahassee, Florida, this 31st day of January, 1989.
