

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 93-6

IN RE: JUROR COMPENSATION

WHEREAS, Subsection 40.24(3), Florida Statutes, was amended to provide compensation for the first three days of jury service to jurors that are (1) not regularly employed, or (2) employed but not receiving regular wages while serving as a juror; and

WHEREAS, Subsection 40.24(3), Florida Statutes, does not provide a method of determining juror compensation eligibility; and

WHEREAS, Subsection 40.24(3), Florida Statutes, does not provide a timeframe for determining juror compensation eligibility; It is therefore,

ORDERED THAT:

The Clerks of the Courts in the Second Judicial Circuit are to inform jurors of the compensation eligibility requirements as soon as feasible, but no later than during juror orientation. Furthermore, the clerks of the courts are to develop a method by which jurors may claim compensation and inform jurors of the method as soon as feasible, but no later than during juror orientation. Jurors are to inform the clerk, in the manner prescribed by the clerk, if compensation eligibility requirements are met and if compensation is sought. Jurors must request compensation prior to the end of jury service. All jurors not requesting compensation prior to the end of jury service will not receive juror per diem for the first three days of jury service. The clerks of the courts may take any action deemed necessary to verify requests made for compensation.

DONE AND ORDERED at Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida this 30th day of April, 1993.
