IN RE: Implementation of F. S.
34.191 with regard to distribution of court costs.

Dear Mr. Henry:

You wrote me by letter dated May 23, 1973 requesting implementation of subsection (3) of Section 34.191, Florida Statutes, pertaining to distribution of reasonable court costs for use of municipal facilities by the county court of Leon County.

You submitted a schedule which reflected proposed pro-rata monthly expenses involving (1) salaries and wages; (2) machinery; (3) utilities; (4) maintenance contract; (5) janitor service; (6) floor space and (7) salary of prosecutor, which totaled $4,988.97 per month.

There are available in the budget of the county court certain funds which may be properly allocated to this purpose. However, full response to your request does not appear feasible.

I am informed that the three employees for whom you ask one-half of their compensation did serve for six months in performing services for the county court, but that thereafter they have not been engaged in any services other than for the city.

The items claimed for machinery, utilities, maintenance contract and janitor service are deemed reasonable.

By honoring the foregoing for the period January 1, 1973 to October 1, 1973, the following is produced:

1. Salaries and wages - 6 months at $1,062.60	$ 6,375.60
2. Machinery - 9 months at $1,162.00	10,458.00
3. Utilities - 9 months at $235.00	2,115.00
4. Maintenance Contract - 9 months at $23.00	207.00
5. Janitor Service - 9 months at $211.70	1,905.30
TOTAL	$21,060.90

The claim for floor space rental and for the prosecutor's salary are not approved. It is deemed that the prosecutor's salary is not an item for the county but his services were for the state's attorney's office. The concept of rental of floor space is not unreasonable as an expense of the court. However, both the county and the city share in the fines and forfeitures imposed by the court and it seems reasonable that the city share in some measure with the expense of maintaining and operating the courts. The disapproval of this item is not intended as establishing any fixed precedent or policy for the future, but only for the purpose of directing distribution of costs for the period ending October 1, 1973.

As there are other matters needful of further discussion in connection with the future operation of the traffic bureau and the traffic division of the county court, it may be fruitful for early conferences to be held to develop an understanding between the county and the city with reference to the continued use of city facilities.

Accordingly, I intend to enter an Order directing the distribution to the city of Tallahassee of the sum of $21,060.90 which is determined to be reasonable costs for the period ending September 30, 1973.

Sincerely yours,

Ben C. Willis
Chief Judge
