To better utilize the services of the official court

responsible for reporting those proceedings in both the Circuit and County Courts which are required to be reported; that is, criminal, juvenile, Baker Act and Myers Act proceedings, but not including Grand Jury proceedings and coroner's inquests.

One reporter will be assigned to Circuit Court Criminal;
one reporter to County Court Criminal; and, one reporter to Juvenile Court and Baker and Myers Act proceedings.

Each reporter assigned in Leon County is required to be the back-up reporter for each other in any of the above mentioned duties and in the following order:

1. Circuit Court Criminal
2. Juvenile Court, Baker & Myers Act

The back-up positions for the Circuit are designated as follows:

5. If any reporter desires to be off on any given day during his or her assignment, arrangements must be made with another reporter to cover the assignment not to conflict with any other schedule.

6. If at any time, except for emergency reasons to be determined by the Court Administrator, an assigned official court reporter fails to cover his or her assignment, and another official reporter or special reporter is assigned by the Court Administrator, that reporter is responsible for payment to the official or special reporter as outlined in the schedule of fees. The official reporter receiving the pay shall not claim credit on the Court Reporters Monthly Certification forms towards the 60 hours overtime requirement.

7. Each reporter who is away from the office for an extended length of time is required to have another reporter on standby and to notify the Court Administrator's Office.

8. Any personal conflicts that may arise between court reporters which can not be resolved between the parties will be reported to the Court Administrator. An effort will be made by the Court Administrator and the reporters to resolve the problem before any other action is taken.
