ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 7

RE: INDIGENT DEFENDANTS - Copies of Depositions

In any case wherein an indigent defendant has taken depositions, and when the original has been filed in the Court file, the Clerk is authorized upon request, to copy the deposition or any part thereof for use by either the State or the Defendant at no more than cost.

In the transcript sought to be copied is of such a length that copying it would cause an undue hardship to court personnel, the indigent Defendant may petition the Court on an individual basis to either tax the costs of having a copy provided by the court reported or to arrange for copying by some other means.

DONE AND ORDERED this 9th day of August, 1978.

CHARLES C. MCCLURE
ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE
