VIII. EMERGENCY MATTERS

A. Cross-Assignments

All circuit judges and county judges in Leon, Gadsden, Jefferson, Liberty, Franklin and Wakulla Counties are hereby cross-assigned to preside over any emergency within their individual counties or assignments in the circuit or county court.

B. Emergency Hearings

The following procedures shall apply when requests to schedule emergency hearings are made in the circuit criminal, civil, or family law divisions and county courts of the Second Judicial Circuit:

1. For the purpose of this order, emergency criminal, civil and family hearings shall be defined as non-routine matters which, by their nature, require the immediate action by a judge to prevent physical harm, property damage or hardship of such a critical nature that the swift intervention of the court is deemed necessary.

2. A request for an emergency hearing shall be presented in writing to the judge assigned to the case.
3. In the event that the judge assigned to the case is unavailable, the request for an emergency hearing shall be brought to the Chief Judge, or Chief Judge pro tem, to determine whether an emergency hearing is needed. For the purpose of this order, the unavailability of the judge shall mean that the judge is physically not present in the courthouse in which the emergency must be heard and will remain so for such period that necessity requires the matter to be submitted to the Chief Judge.
4. If the Chief Judge decides that the emergency requires the immediate attention of a judge, the Office of Court Administration shall be notified and a judge shall be identified to handle the emergency.
5. Only the judge identified to handle the emergency shall be permitted to resolve the emergency. If the judge assigned to the emergency is unable to rule on the emergency matter due to a conflict or any other reason, the Office of Court Administration shall again be contacted and another judge shall be identified to resolve the emergency.

IX. BACK-UP AND SUPPLEMENTAL ASSIGNMENTS

A. Circuit Judges

Each circuit judge of the Second Judicial Circuit is assigned to supplement and aid the county court in the county to which the circuit judge is assigned. Each circuit judge is also authorized to supplement and aid any other judge or county judge in the circuit when the circuit judge is unavailable or otherwise requests assistance, or is assigned by the Chief Judge.

B. County Judges

Each county judge of the Second Judicial Circuit is temporarily assigned in their respective counties to supplement and aid the circuit court. However, county judges shall not be assigned to handle contested family law cases, or child support and/or enforcement cases, in their respective counties, except in an emergency or when expressly assigned by the Chief Judge. Each county judge of the Second Judicial Circuit is authorized to supplement and aid any county judge or circuit judge in the circuit when a county judge or circuit judge is unavailable or otherwise requests assistance, or is assigned by the Chief Judge.

C. Simplified Dissolution Cases

1. County judges in each of the counties of the Second Judicial Circuit shall have jurisdiction over all simplified dissolution of marriage cases.
2. For the purposes of public convenience and administrative efficiency, simplified dissolution of marriage cases may be filed in the Circuit Civil Division of the clerk's office in each of the counties of the Second Judicial Circuit, and shall be processed accordingly.

D. Jury Qualification

Leon County Judge James O. Shelfer is assigned to qualify the Leon County jurors on Friday and Monday jury selection days.

X. SCHEDULING OF COURTROOMS AND HEARING ROOMS

The scheduling of all courtrooms and hearing rooms in Leon County shall be assigned by the Office of Court Administration under the supervision of the Chief Judge.
