ORDERED as follows:

1. All court costs, fees, fines and other dispositional assessments imposed in misdemeanor, criminal traffic, and felony cases are due upon imposition by the Court. If the defendant cannot pay the fines and costs at sentencing, the defendant will be ordered to the Clerk's Court Ordered Payments (COP) program for collection and reporting on compliance. The sentencing court must determine whether the defendant has the ability to pay costs and fines at time of imposition.
2. If the sentencing court finds the defendant is unable to pay, the court, based on the individual circumstances of the defendant, may:
 - A. Waive costs and fines owed, if permitted by law;
 - B. Reduce costs and fines owed, if permitted by law;
 - C. Provide the defendant with a community service alternative to work off costs and fines. The value per hour for community service work performed will be the same as the policies for valuation in programs administered by the Leon County Probation Division;
 - D. Convert unpaid amounts owed to a civil judgment; or
 - E. A combination of the options listed in B-D.
3. At sentencing, the clerk will provide to each defendant who is ordered to comply with the COP program a Notice of Court Ordered Payments. The notice will advise the defendant of the following:
 - A. The total amount due;
 - B. The amount of the monthly payment;
 - C. The date the payment is to be made each month until paid in full;
 - D. The location where payments are to be made;
 - E. Available forms of payment;
 - F. The one-time administrative $25 fee for inclusion in the COP program;
 - G. The defendant is responsible for keeping a current physical address on file with the Clerk's Office;
 - H. The defendant must contact the Clerk's Office to request an adjustment to monthly payment amounts, or appear in collections court, if the defendant's financial circumstances change.
 - I. The defendant must stay current with monthly payments. Failure to stay in contact with the Clerk's Office will result in a summons being issued for a mandatory court appearance. If the defendant fails to appear at this mandatory hearing, the court will issue an Order to Show Cause for the defendant's arrest.

- J. Willful failure to comply with the court's order to pay costs and fines may result in the imposition of additional costs, fees, sanctions, and contempt of court penalties.
 - K. A statutory fee of $40.00 may be assessed if the Sheriff's Office attempts to serve a summons issued to enforce collections pursuant to this order.
4. If the defendant fails to make monthly payments and a summons is issued for a mandatory court appearance, the Leon County Sheriff's Office will serve the summons on the defendant. The statutory rate for service will be assessed by the Clerk's Office, paid by the defendant, and remitted to the Leon County Sheriff's Office.
 5. When a summons is served on a defendant, the defendant must appear within 14 days in collections court.
 6. If a defendant fails to appear in collections court after being served with a summons, the court may:
 - A. Enter a civil judgment for the balance owed; or
 - B. Issue a Writ of Bodily Attachment for the defendant's arrest.
 7. All defendants arrested on a writ will be scheduled for the first available first appearance docket.
 8. The first appearance judge will inquire as to why the defendant failed to appear in collections court and inquire whether the defendant has the present ability to pay the past due balance.  - A. Enter a civil judgment for the total amount owed;

 9. If the first appearance judge finds that the defendant willfully failed to appear and willfully refuses to pay the amount due, the court may schedule the defendant for the next collections court docket and set a purge amount that the defendant is able to pay, or take such other action as the Court deems appropriate as permitted by law.
