WHEREAS, the administrative burden of certification and regulation of Civil Process Servers pursuant to Section 48.25, et seq., Florida Statutes, has increased comparatively to the increase in the number of Certified Civil Process Servers; and,

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of Florida clearly intended to supplement service of process by the various sheriffs of Florida counties with an alternate means of service of civil process by Certified Civil Process Servers when it enacted Section 48.25, et seq., Florida Statutes; and,

WHEREAS, if this Court is to continue to exercise its discretionary power to certify and regulate Certified Civil Process Servers pursuant to Section 48.25, et seq., Florida Statutes, the procedures to be followed in the Second Judicial Circuit must be reformed and clarified;

WHEREAS, Administrative Order 2000-07, as amended, 2003-11 and 2010-03, created the Second Judicial Circuit Certified Civil Process Server Review Board which has been operating thereunder since, and the need has arisen for the modification of the procedures and guidelines by which the Second Judicial Circuit Certified Civil Process Server Review Board functions;
